7 Jaanda Court Blairgowrie VIC

First time available in over thirty years, this unique vacant block is one of just a few in the court, located across the road from the bay and offering potential for stunning water views from a second-story build. It's tucked away from main road traffic, providing a peaceful retreat, yet is just a short walk to Blairgowrie village.

This is the last vacant lot in this sought-after court. With a width of over 15 meters, the land is versatile and opens up a range of design possibilities, including the option for a modern two or multi-storey home, a spacious balcony with views, an infinity-edge pool, and even a tennis court on the lower level, all surrounded by a backyard featuring Moonah trees and native vegetation. With the right architect and builder, this property will truly stand out in the charming
